SUBJECT: CANADA UNLIKELY TO ATTEND DEVELOPMENT MINISTERS
MEETING, MONROVIA, LIBERIA, SEPT. 5-6

REF: SECSTATE 89825

11. (U) On August 22, Econoff delivered reftel points to Jean-Yves Bourque, Program Officer, Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA). Bourque stated that Canada does not have an aid program with Liberia and therefore is unlikely to attend the September Development Ministers meeting in Monrovia.

12. (U) On August 27, Bourque confirmed that International Cooperation Minister Oda received an invitation to the conference. He explained that the Minister has not yet decided if and on what level Canada might be represented. Bourque again said that because Canada has no aid program with Liberia, and does not want to artificially raise Liberia's hopes, it is extremely unlikely that Canada would send a high level representative to the meeting. He said because of USG encouragement to attend the conference, Canada will consider sending an Abidjan-based development official.
